

Minnesota Music Educators Association Midwinter Clinic
February 14-16, 2019
Minneapolis, MN

MUSW 501 Minnesota Music Educators Association (MMEA) Midwinter Clinic Essay, 1 credit, Fee: $185

Process for obtaining graduate credit from the University of St. Thomas:

Attend fifteen (15) session/concert hours during the MMEA Midwinter Clinic. These hours can be obtained by attending sessions and concerts during the conference February 14-16, 2019.

AND

Write a brief description of each session or critical review of concerts. Include:

Sessions

Title, presenter's name, date & time of session.

Identify the salient points presented.

Discuss how the topic & presentation may/may not inform or impact your teaching.

Concerts

Name of group, conductor, and pieces performed.

Write a critical review.

Papers must be double-spaced and typed.

Allow for one page per workshop, session, or concert.

Include a cover page with the following information (ALL items are required):

- Date
- Name
- Phone
- Email address
- Mailing address
- Date of Birth
- Social Security number OR your St. Thomas identification number (one of these is required)

Send your paper, cover page, and fee to the address listed below OR you can email your essay to gradmusic@stthomas.edu and mail the fee to the address listed below. Please write your last name and MUSW 501 on the reference line of your check.

Papers must be postmarked no later than March 25, 2019.

Grades are Pass/Fail.

Please note that grades will not be posted until full payment has been received.

Please send/fax/email to:

GPME, University of St. Thomas
2115 Summit Ave., LOR 103
St. Paul, MN 55105-1096

Phone: (651) 962-5870
Fax: (651) 962-5886
email: gradmusic@stthomas.edu